CAPTASA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

TARGET AUDIENCE

Attendees will include physicians, nurses, pharmacists, dentists, chemical dependency counselors, psychologists, therapists, social workers, employee assistance professionals and other health care providers, as well as recovering professionals.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After completing this course, the participant should be able to:

- Define and understand trauma in the addicted population
- Identify the root causes and reasons for relapse in untreated trauma
- Assess and treat trauma using the 12 steps and EMDR
- Distinguish goals for an outpatient substance abuse/dependence assessment from those of a residential assessment
- Be able to list the best-practices for structured outpatient assessment, including the content and characteristics for the CAGE questions and the interpretations of responses
- Be able to formulate both open-ended questioning and forced-choice questions when doing an assessment
- Learn to find alternative medication options that provide or lessen risk to those attempting to maintain sobriety
- Understand how those in recovery from substance use disorders remain aware of the tendency to seek external solutions to internal problems
- Discover how health care providers can educate their patients/clients on when to seek consultation on medication use before deciding on a drug themselves
- Review available resources in regard to treatment facilities and level of care
- Learn, understand, and use the knowledge of the presenter's experience with treatment selection
- Review the options for detox
- Learn, understand, and use the knowledge of presenter's experience with medical detox
- Increase awareness that detox is needed to prepare the patient to receive treatment; it is not treatment on its own
- Develop a strategy for presenting in a public forum to the recovery community non-professionals how to decrease risk of unintentional relapse
- Rank the importance of at-risk medications
- Identify a group of recovering individuals who would benefit from both the strategy for public forum presentation and at risk medications
- Review fundamentals of pain and suffering: differentiate acute and chronic pain, explore neurobiology of pain, describe central pain, and discuss chronic pain syndrome
- List and understand medication treatments for chronic pain: non-opioid medications, opioids (side effects, chemical coping, hyperalgesia, addiction, buprenorphine), and rational prescribing to include screening, entry and exit strategies
- List the components of a 96-hour evaluation
- Describe the ASAM patient placement criteria
- Understand the processes that lead to the success rates in treating addicted patients
- Review the prevalence of adolescent substance abuse in Kentucky and the US
- Discuss the effectiveness of a variety of evidence based practices for working with adolescent substance abusers
- Review effective strategies for engaging adolescents and their families in the treatment process
- Recognize and diagnose substance use disorders in female patients utilizing increased awareness and sensitivity and formal screening instruments that are sensitive to women's history and clinical presentation
- Conduct interview with women patients utilizing motivational skills designed to address women's issues
- Address external (lack of financial resources, family support, child care) and internal (care-giving identity, non-assertiveness, low self-esteem) barriers to women entering treatment, remaining in treatment and accepting the need for ongoing care
- Learn and understand the phases and program components of residential treatment
- Learn and understand the importance of residential treatment as a treatment option
- Understand the sober living residential programs as a resource for long-term care and recovery
- Gain knowledge of ASAM Patient Placement Criteria
- Learn appropriate assessment tools to determine level of care
- Understand changing level of care based on patient need
- Learn the foundation of the biopsychosocial model of addiction
- Extrapolate the biopsychosocial model to patient care
- Convey gender, racial and professional variations that require considerations in diagnosis, treatment and aftercare
- Understand the neuropharmacology that dictates use of medication
- Learn medications of risk
- Understand prolonged withdrawal recognition and its impact on co-morbid diagnosis
- Learn about epidemiological and prevalence data as it pertains to synthetic drugs
- Learn about the varied classifications of synthetic drugs as compared to their closest counterpart in nature, and the general patterns of use
- Review video clips of youthful addiction treatment clients discussing their use, experiences and motivations around the use of varied synthetic drugs to gain a better understanding of this addiction

FACULTY

BURNS M. BRADY, MD, ASAM, FASAM, ABFP, FAAFP

Dr. Burns M. Brady is a 1964 graduate of the University of Louisville Medical School and completed his internship and residency training at St. Joseph's Infirmary in Louisville.

Dr. Brady is a member of numerous professional medical organizations, including the local, state and national medical associations, the American Academy of Family Practice and is a Fellow of the American Society of Addiction Medicine. He is a Board-certified family physician and a Board-certified addictionologist.

Dr. Brady is an addiction consultant for a 400-bed men and women's homeless shelter, The Healing Place, which has been recognized as one of the top five in the United States. He continues to be a very active volunteer.

He served as a clinical instructor on alcoholism for the University of Louisville, University of Kentucky, and Pikeville Schools of Medicine. He also served as a consultant to the American Bar Association, Kentucky Bar Association, Kentucky Dental Association and Kentucky Nurses Association on issues of professional impairment.

Dr. Brady retired for the second time in 2011 as the Medical Director of the Kentucky Physicians Health Foundation-Impaired Physicians Program and has been named Medical Director Emeritus.

Dr. Brady has presented on various topics relating to impairment issues on a local, state, national and international level.

KASEY BRADY, LCSW

Kasey Brady is a 1991 graduate of the University of Louisville, where she received a BS in Guidance and Counseling. In 1997, she received a Masters of Science in Social Work from the Kent School of Social Work at the University of Louisville. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in private practice in Louisville, KY, with specialties in acute and chronic trauma, PTSD, anxiety, depression, addiction and couple's counseling. She is certified in the practice of EMDR and is a member of the National Association of Social Work and the EMDR International Association.

DOUGLAS N. BRUSH

Doug Brush began his career in addiction treatment on August 7, 1977, when he went to work as a Therapeutic Recreation Specialist on the Alcohol and Drug Dependency Unit at Ridgeview Institute in Smyrna, Georgia. It was during that time that Doug met Donnie Brown and began working part time for Metro Atlanta Recovery Residences (MARR) as a residential manager in 1978. Doug came to work for MARR full time on February 23, 1981, as Director of Residential Services for the men's program. Over the past 33 years Doug has served as Director of Residential Services, Director of MARR South, Director of the Women's Program, Director of Program Relations, and was MARR's CEO from January of 1998 until February of 2006. In February of 2006 Doug returned to the clinical side of MARR and is currently Director of the Men's Recovery Center.

In addition, Doug serves as Chairperson for the Standards Committee for the Georgia Association of Recovery Residences (GARR) as well as being a past president of GARR. MARR is a founding member of the association.

Doug is a Certified Addiction Counselor II in the state of Georgia through the Georgia Addiction Counselor's Association (G.A.C.A.) and was appointed as Chairman of the Ethics Committee in 2002. Doug received The President's Award from G.A.C.A. in 2004 for outstanding service to the addiction counseling profession and in 2009 received the Bernard Carter Humanitarian Award. In addition, he is a member in good standing with the National Association of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Counselors (NAADAC), and served as a Board member for the Georgia Council on Substance Abuse (GCSA) from 1998-2006 and served on the Board of Directors for The National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers (NAATP) from 2003-2006.

QUINN T. CHIPLEY, MA, MD

Dr. Chipley was born and raised in Memphis, Tennessee. He has degrees from Rice University, Houston, Texas (B.A.-1978), Southeastern Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina (M. Div. - 1984), University of Louisville, Clinical Psychology (M.A.-1992) and University of Louisville, M.D. (2000). He is currently a Ph.D. student in the Humanities program of the University of Louisville.

Dr. Chipley also serves as the Counseling Coordinator for the students enrolled in the medical, dental, nursing and graduate schools of the University of Louisville at the Health Sciences Center campus. He considers it the ideal position where he can practice psychology against the background of a medical education. Prior mental health profession work experiences have included Director of Staff Development and Training, Central State Hospital ICF/MR, Louisville, Kentucky, a brief stint in the psychiatry residency of the University of Louisville affiliated hospitals, six years of full-time private practice in psychology with Ragsdell and Associates, Louisville, Kentucky.

Dr. Chipley's other work opportunities in life have been so varied as to include alumni fundraising for Rice University, three years of teaching in Kenya, East Africa, and bookkeeping for a small Louisville company. Volunteer passions have included active service and board membership for both Alley Cat Advocates and the Drepung Gomang Institute. He is a board member of the Kentucky Physicians Health Foundation, and he was pleased and honored in 2007 to be invited to help with the CAPTASA planning group, a service opportunity he still maintains and cherishes.

CAPTASA IS STAYING GREEN!

What this means for participants: We will no longer be making copies of presentation handouts for each conference attendee. All presentations will be available at our website www.captasa.org one week prior to the conference so that you may download and print your own copies. This will save greatly on paper, which means fewer trees will be killed! It will also allow us to avoid an increase in registration fees. For those participants who prefer handouts be provided for them there will be an additional charge of $35 per set. We hope you support us in this endeavor to do our little part to save the environment. We look forward to seeing you in January 2015!
